

Texas Sign Association health plan overview.

The Texas Sign Association launched an association health plan (AHP) to allow their small business members to purchase insurance like a larger business.

How it works.

The AHP is administered by UnitedHealthcare and accesses UnitedHealthcare's Choice Plus, Choice, Navigate or Charter nationwide networks.

With 37 plans to choose from, this AHP provides Texas Sign Association members with a large group status, allowing for rating flexibility, and helps small businesses not be limited to an adjusted community rating (ACR). Some employers have been negatively impacted by ACR and could benefit by moving their insurance to an AHP through the Texas Sign Association.

Requirements that firms must meet to be eligible for coverage:

- Must be a member of the Texas Sign Association.
- Must have between 2–50 average total number of employees (includes full-time and part-time employees).
- Must meet the participation requirement of covering 50% of the eligible employees — less valid waivers.

Obtaining coverage.

Learn the cost of obtaining coverage from an AHP by contacting your current local benefits broker. Your local broker should reach out to their local UnitedHealthcare Account Executive, who will walk them through the steps necessary to obtain the cost of coverage through the Texas Sign Association.
